WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

The Northern Press on the Election.

As our readers will no doubt desire to see the indications of Northern sentiment on both sides in regard to the result of the Presidential election, and to the probable policy of the President elect, we surrender a portion of our space to citations from a number of the leading newspapers.

The New York Herald, after quoting Grant's motto—"Let us have peace"—says:

"We look now to see these words converted into acts—to see the olive branch substituted for the sword in the Southern States, negro supremacy quietly superseded, and such measures adopted as will create harmony out of discord in that genial and fruitful portion of our country comprised in the States now suffering from a mistaken and vindictive policy."

It expresses "great confidence in General Grant," and predicts that his policy will be to check corruption and extravagance, make taxes lighter and reduce the public debt.

Charles S. Spencer, a leading Radical, thus expressed himself at a Republican jubilee held at Cooper Institute on the night of the third:

"Mark me, under the administration of Grant the black men that have been outlawed and subdued to-day in Louisiana will, with the whirligig of time, get their vengeance."

The New York Tribune says:

"General Grant is this day the choice of a decided majority of the legal voters of every State in the Union save Kentucky, Maryland, Delaware, and possibly Oregon. Every State that has gone for Seymour outside of these has been so carried by coercion or fraud. We now look for the adoption of measures that shall effectually preclude a repetition of these crimes."

The New York Times expresses the opinion that "the country may look for that beneficent peace which has been the watchword of the Republican party during the political campaign. Grant's election is a warning to the old rebel element which we have no doubt will be heeded. And from this time forward we expect to hear much less of the spirit of disorder and strife in the Southern States. Of course Grant's election puts a close to the disastrous war between Congress and the Executive. It gives us harmony between all departments of the government, as well as an effective administration of all its affairs. We shall every day see more and more of the peaceful effects of Grant's triumph yesterday.—And in a short time even those who opposed his election will be heartily rejoiced at their own defeat."

The New York World makes the following signal display of philosophy, saying:

"We congratulate with all our hearts the Democracy of the United States upon the battle they have fought in behalf of representative self-government, liberty and economy, the Union and its peace. With all our hearts we applaud and honor them for the manful and unwearied blows they have dealt at disunion, revolution, military despotism, corruption and fraud."

It says that it will be found, when the returns are all summed up, that "the Republican majority throughout the nation is far less than the number of those who have been cheated out of their right to vote."—The World concludes by proclaiming, "in this most trying hour," that the Democracy are

"Secure of possessing the future of our country, and of moulding her magnificent destinies when itself shall have been purged and moulded for that imperial task."

And expresses

"An unshaken and unshakable confidence in its puissant and undying youth, which out of disaster will get discipline, out of misfortunes, patience and unconquerable courage, out of blunders, wisdom and a settled will.

To this great work, here and now, upon a battlefield which has been lost, do we invite, beneath undishonored standards, the youth, the manhood of our time."

The New York Sun thinks that

"One of the first objects to which the new Administration will turn its attention, will be the completion of the task of reconstruction, the pacification of the South, and the restoration of order and security to that suffering portion of the Union."

It hopes to

"See the three States now outside of the Union restored to their relations to the Government during the approaching session of Congress. We entreat that body to hasten the completion of the work, so that when Gen. Grant shall take the President's oath, every star shall beam with undimmed lustre from the banner that waves over his head. If, however, it shall be delayed till he enters the White House, we are sure he will push it to a rapid consummation, for he is aware that the people are desirous of seeing this obstacle to the peace of the country immediately removed out of the way."

The Sun threatens that if

"Ex-rebels, of the school of Hampton, Forrest, Wise, Semmes and Toombs, continue their assaults upon a Government which has magnanimously spared their lives, and shall not instantly refrain from stimulating arson and murder and cognate crimes, the loyal people of the nation will demand that they be tried by court-martial for violating their paroles, or by criminal tribunals for treason; and if convicted, that they be banished from the country or put to death."

The Sun expresses the hope, however,

"That reason has not fled from the old ruling element of the South, and that under the firm, sagacious, just, and liberal administration of General Grant, the sober masses will turn a deaf ear to political agitation and violent counsels, and devote themselves to industrial pursuits, to the revival of agriculture, to the founding of manufactures, to the establishment of commerce, and to the encouragement of common schools, so that they may become the most populous, enterprising, and wealthy portion of the Union."

The National Intelligencer says:

"As to the new administration, all we have to say is, that our course, and that of the people, will be regulated by its acts."

Should the new administration be conducted under the inspiration of "the Congressional Jacobins," the Intelligencer will oppose it all hazards and to the last extremity; but, says that journal:

"It is possible, however, that Gen. Grant may, on taking the Presidential chair, remember that he is the President of a whole people; the solemn oath which he will be called on to take on that day may be to him a real and deep responsibility; the names and characters of Washington, of Madison, Monroe, and the other great patriots who have filled this high office, may crowd thick upon his memory, and he may feel an honorable ambition to quit the chair with the love, the respect, and the veneration of all his countrymen. Such thoughts may come with the position, and if they shall guide his conduct they may bear a nobler harvest than the bitter fruit of an hour of passionate, frenzied, political struggle. We should be among the first to hail such a spirit, and shall only be too happy to admit, along with the American people, in such an event, that what now seems to us a great public calamity has been transmuted into blessing. If liberty, the Constitution, the just rights of the white race, and peace be restored, we shall be only too profoundly rejoiced to take note whether the hands by which this has been accomplished are of our own or an adverse party."

Forney's Chronicle says:

"If we should be asked to indicate in few words the significance of their verdict, we should say that it means this: It puts the seal of final and irrevocable condemnation upon the doctrines of secession; it stops any future attempt to destroy the Union; it pronounces the funeral of slavery, and buries all its incidents in the same grave with it, and it declares the eternal devotion of the American people to those free principles which our fathers adopted as cardinal political truths."

The Philadelphia Press hopes that the popular decision

"Will be promptly and cheerfully obeyed, and that henceforth the elements of disorder and disaffection will bow to the will of the mighty North."

It adds:

"From this hour the wounds of our torn and bleeding land begin to heal. Dissension shall rend us no more. Treason, no longer brooding evil distemper and convulsion, shall blight the commercial and business interests of the nation. The altar fires of industry shall be lighted on forge and furnace throughout the length and breadth of the land. Credit and confidence shall spring up in every community. The golden harvests shall smile from sea to sea, and the North and South, East and West, the waste places be made glad."

The Press claims that one meaning of the election is as follows:

"It means the uplifting of the strong arm of the nation, bringing life to the hunted and insulted white Union men of the South, and justice to the colored men who hold the bond and pledge of the country for civil rights and liberty."

The Baltimore Gazette says:

"Gen. Grant has now an opportunity before him such as is accorded to but few men in the lives of nations. If he is the man of comprehensive intellect and patriotic impulses that his friends assert him to be, he can quickly sweep away the embarrassments which now surround the country, and restore her again to her olden prosperity. It behooves the Democratic party to hold fast to this last hope. With General Grant it rests to restore or to overthrow forever our time honored Republic. The Democratic party then should cease to judge him further for the present, and look with anxious solicitude for the first indications of his capacity and his intention to save the country."

The Commercial, of the same city, says:

"General Grant is now entitled to receive a fair trial in the Executive chair, and we hope that the Democratic party will, as far as in their power, support and sustain him. He has had the wisdom to keep his own counsels, to hold his tongue between his teeth, and now, unpledged to any party, and uncommitted to any policy, he becomes President of the United States.

His election may be made the triumph of real conservative sentiments; for though the candidate of Radical extremists, and elevated by that party, he had to be taken by them, notwithstanding the uniform conservatism that marked his course of conduct, as well during the war as since the return of peace. No single sentiment of extreme Radicalism could be extorted from him even to serve the purposes of a most excited canvass. His simple "Let us have peace" was a conservative interpolation upon the Chicago platform, indicating but little sympathy with the extreme views of Radical leaders."

The Baltimore Sun says:

"We must take a new point of departure, and, dismissing from our contemplation the things which are behind, press forward in the labors and to the rewards of a new era of development and progress. Mr. John Quincy Adams has declared his belief that the heartfelt desire of the great bulk of the Northern people is to treat the South with kindness and generosity, and the opportunity is now offered in General Grant's election, to give strong and practical expression to that desire.

* * * * The solution of all difficulties is not so much in any particular legislative policy as in the spirit which animates legislation, and if this shall be honestly patriotic and brotherly, if the words of General Grant, "let us have peace," shall indicate the abandonment of a vindictive policy, the future regeneration and salvation of the country will be put beyond all doubt. Any other course, while it may gratify the passions of unappeasable revenge against the South, will be purchased at the indefinite detriment and cost all those material interests which are of supreme concern to all sections. Forbearance, moderation and patience should be the controlling sentiment of all sections."

WHAT THE LATE ELECTIONS TEACH.

We observe that a variety of opinions are expressed, by the Northern press and people, as to the teachings of the recent elections. The ultra Radicals do not hesitate to claim it as a full endorsement, by the people, of the entire Radical programme—not only what has been done by the party, in and out of Congress, but some of them, such as Wendell Phillips and Mr. Sumner, begin very boldly to mark out further Radical excesses, as demanded by the principles and aims of modern Republicanism, and which must be carried out by the 40th. Congress, before the 4th. of March next.

The more moderate Republican journals take a different view of matters, and consider that the lesson taught is, that Gen. Grant, whom they set down as moderate and conservative in his views, is stronger than the Radical Republican party, and that it will be wise in the party, in view of the growing power of the Democracy, to moderate its course and turn its attention to improve the financial condition of the country, to retrench its expenditures, correct its corruptions and abuses, and lessen the burdens of taxation.

Among the Democratic journals there is a disposition to accept the result, as an indication of a growing moderation among the people, and an intimation that General Grant will not be controlled by the ultra men of the party, which may place him in nearly similar relations with them to those in which they placed Mr. Johnson, and that it will not be surprising if the Democracy will rally to his support, as in the case of the President, and for the same reason.

Amid these conflicting views, we conceive it to be all important that the South should not misconceive the teachings of the election. On this account, we have deemed it prudent to suggest, that the South should acquiesce in the decison of the majority of the American people, whatever that may be, give the government and the administration of Gen. Grant such support as duty and propriety may require, and quietly wait for the developments of the future. As the voice of the South can have no weight in shaping his administration, and as, in fact, it can take no part in National politics, potentially, for the next four years, it is wise that we should accept the teachings of the election as an endorsement of "Congressional reconstruction," and endeavor to profit by the lessons of experience. While, therefore, we cannot be uninterested in the action of the government, for the next four years, we should be content to look on as spectators, and become, measurably at least, silent learners.

While we do not propose, by any means, to abandon our principles or to break up the Democratic and Conservative organizations in existence in the State and in the South, we may change their names and direct the aims of those organizations to matters of State policy and to our material interests, for the present. In this way, the present incomplete organizations may become more solid, more perfect and more efficient, both for the present and the future. We propose that the aims of those associations shall be directed solely, not to any changes effected in our status by the requirments of the "reconstruction acts," but to the modification of such parts of the State government as are not adapted to our people or condition, which impose enormous burdens too intolerable to be borne, violently change our old systems, loved and revered by all, and afford no adequate protection to labor or to property. In a word, we would direct the aims of those associations to the restoration of those customs and laws which are essential to the security of life, liberty, property and the rewards of labor, equally for all our people, and the concentration of the organized efforts of intelligence and enterprise, for the promotion of the harmony and the prosperity of all classes. We propose no interference with the question of suffrage. We would enlighten and direct it in proper channels, in order that the experiment may be fairly and fully tested. If experience shall show that universal suffrage affords protection to liberty, confers good and not evil upon the State and upon communities, purifies and elevates society, and guarantees the rights of the people and promotes law and order, then let it stand; otherwise remove it. We say give it a trial, not because we are convinced it will do all these; for, so far from it, we believe universal suffrage is an unmixed evil, and that a fair trial will prove it so,—but we say try it, fairly, fully, as one more offering on the altar of peace, on the part of the South. In obedience to the will of the dominant majority, let it be tested, peaceably, fairly, justly. Since it must be so, in order to peace, let the African and the mixed blood get all he can, out of the unnatural, unjust and illegitimate behests of Congress and of the Northern people, i. e. out of his political equality with the whites. We would never have given it to him, of our own accord, until he was worthy of it and knew how to use it; but since he has it for good or ill, by the act of others, let him test his capacity for it, for the sake of peace! But let us watch and take care, that it shall not be used as an instrument of his and of our ruin and the ruin of the Republic. Hence, we say, let our Democratic and Conservative organizations remain intact—let them be increased in numbers and efficiency, but let them be directed, for the present, to taking care of our home interests, our State policy and our material prosperity!

RIOT IN ASHEVILLE.

We regret to learn, from our private correspondence, and from the Asheville News, that a riot occurred in that place on election day, in which the negroes were the aggressors—doubtless under depraved white instigation. As usual in all such conflicts, they suffered the consequences of their wicked folly. The News gives the following particulars:

"Soon after the polls were opened, on Tuesday morning, a negro presented his ballot to vote, who was known by the clerk of the election to have been once convicted of felony and publicly whipped. The clerk reminded him of it, but the negro told him he could not prove it. A person standing by, who knew the fact, was appealed to and corroborated the statement of the clerk.—Upon this the negro turned to the clerk and said it was a d——d lie. Of course, a knock down was the response, and for a few moments there was great danger of a general row, but the contestants were separated, with "nobody hurt." A large number of negroes were assembled around the polls at the time, who became greatly excited, and many of them immediately left, but in a few moments returned armed with clubs and bludgeons.

From that time until about 1 o'clock, the negroes, banded together in squads of twenty to forty, almost occupied the public square, while one or perhaps two walked up and down the main street, with sleeves rolled up, cudgel in hand, and in a bullying swaggering manner. But little attention was paid to this folly, by the white people, and no difficulty occurred until a number of negroes commenced an attack upon one of their color, who had voted the Conservative ticket. It was evident that this man's life was in danger, and a few young men, determined to protect him, took him under their care. At this the negroes (about 200) gathered around and commenced abusing them. One negro fired a pistol at Mr. M. Ledford, while another struck him with a stone, and stones were thrown at the white men from various quarters. At this an indiscriminate firing commenced from the white men, and a general, hasty retreat of the negroes followed.

We regret to state that one poor negro was killed, while seven or eight were wounded—mostly flesh wounds.

No man deplores the occurrence more than ourself; and we believe in that we express the feelings of every white citizen of the town; and if the true citizens of Asheville had had any influence with the negroes, it would not have occurred, for it was evident, from the time of the first fracas, that a terrible outbreak was brewing, and if the proper authorities, or those who profess to be the only friends of the negroes, had advised them to go home after voting, the last and fatal difficulty would not have happened. Instead of that, no friendly advice was given the negroes, and a few of the more ignorant of them became insolent. Reports were started early in the morning that it was the intention of the negroes to take down the Seymour and Blair flag, while in the kitchens the negro girls said they wished to hurry up their work to see the fight that was to take place between the blacks and whites. Whether these foolish reports were true or false, it matters not; they came from the negroes, and their hanging around the flag pole, in large numbers, all the morning, gave some color of suspicion, at least, that there was something in them. So long as the negroes showed any disposition to be peaceable and orderly, there was no danger of any disturbance; but just as soon as any man, white or black, was in danger, for voting as he pleased, then it was time the white people should show to these deluded creatures that they are determined to protect every voter in his right to exercise the elective franchise according to the dictates of his own conscience, irrespective of Loyal League dictation or negro mob.

But there are strong suspicions in the minds of many that it was a preconcerted plot against the white people of Asheville, and we are more impressed with that suspicion, from the fact that as one of our most respected and aged citizens was coming into town, before the last difficulty occurred, he heard a drum beating, and, enquiring of some armed negroes that he saw in the road, what was meant, they told him it was to gather the negroes together; that they intended to go into Asheville and drive the white people out.

That the negroes fired first, and threw a number of stones at the white people who were protecting a conservative negro, and that the white people fired in self defence, there is sufficient of the most reliable proof.

That the proper authorities could have prevented it, we have not the least doubt, and if the feelings of the negroes had not been so completely alienated from our best white citizens, we repeat, it would have been prevented.

We will also state that not more than eight white men were engaged in it, and they routed at least two hundred negroes, showing what will be the result, if the Radicals continue in exciting the negroes to acts of violence upon the white people of the South."

GEN. GRANT'S CABINET.—The Quid Nunes are already engaged in manufacturing a Cabinet for Gen. Grant. Among other speculations, the New York Herald has the following:

"Doubtless the South should appear at the council board, and Holden, of North Carolina, might have a seat as representing the Department of the Interior."

The true people of North Carolina will never forgive the United States Senate for rejecting Holden as Minister to San Salvador. Let him have a place in the Cabinet, by all means.

DANA, of the Baltimore Sun, alluding to the fact that Gen. Canby has been transferred from command in the District of Columbia to the department of Texas, says:

"The people of the District of Columbia will, with regret, part with such an accomplished officer and affable gentleman as Gen. Canby. It is a noticeable fact that the reasons which now make it necessary that he should succeed Gen. Reynolds are similar to those under which Canby relieved the troublesome Sickles, who, as Governor and General, sought also to become the Judge of the second military district."

The people of North Carolina felt no such regret, when Gen. Canby left this District. "Troublesome" as Sickles was, Canby was not regarded as much of an improvement.

Vote of North Carolina, as Compared with the Vote on Convention.

Special Correspondence of the Baltimore Gazette.

"ALL QUIET ALONG THE POTOMAC"—THE CONSERVATIVES YIELD GRACEFULLY TO DEFEAT—HENDRICKS TO CONTEST THE ELECTION IN INDIANA.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.

"It is quiet along the Potomac," and the defeated Democratic leaders here declare that Gen. Grant is entitled to receive a fair trial in the Executive chair. They say he stands unpledged to any party and uncommitted to any policy, and will assume the Presidency under circumstances the most favorable to himself, but unfavorable to the extreme measures of Radicalism. A prominent officer of the army who was friendly to Gen. Grant's election, and known to be somewhat in his confidence, remarked today that the General would call around him as advisers only statesmen of known Conservative views, and that an ex-member of Congress from Illinois of the Democratic school would be the first selection for his Cabinet. The Conservative men in Washington yield gracefully to their overwhelming defeat, confident in the belief that had Grant not been nominated by the Radicals, he would have been by the Democrats, and that his antecedents have all been conservative. Many predict that he will be impeached by the Radicals in less than twelve months from the date of his inauguration.

It is a singular fact that no President of the United States, up to the present time, has had a child born in the White House. It is understood that the fact will not exist long after the 4th of March next.

Dispatches received here announce that Hendricks will contest the election in Indiana by allowing Baker to be inaugurated Governor and then suing out a writ of quo warranto.

E.

B. F. BUTLER.—General B. F. Butler has been elected by a very large majority—greater, indeed, than he received before.

The election of this man is a bitter pill to the Radicals. They believe that he goes to Congress bearing an unappeasable hatred against General Grant, and that he will endeavor in every way to cripple his administration. He is also known to desire to fill the place of Thad Stevens in the leadership of the extreme Radical wing of the Republican party.

Moreover, Gen. Butler is in possession of many of the secrets of the Radica's which he will not hesitate to blow upon them; and this is what they fear.

The hero of Dutch Gap is also digging away at the financial schemes of the bondholders, and this is his great sin; for which they can find no forgiveness in their hearts. They know his persevering activity that no obstacles can daunt, and his unscrupulousness that sticks not at using any means to accomplish his ends. He is the very worst enemy that the bondholders could have pitted against them. He is what may be called, in more senses than one, an ugly antagonist, and the Radicals bitterly regret now that they have brought into such prominence an Ishmaelite like Butler, who will do them more damage than twenty men like Thad Stevens.—Norfolk Journal.

THE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
NEW YORK.
Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is INSTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.
Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.
The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.
To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent. greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent. payable at the end of five years.
By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1868.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Some of our City and County subscribers have delayed payment until their bills in the aggregate are considerable. We beg them to attend to them at once.

POSTPONEMENT.—The sale of city property and lands advertised to be sold on Saturday last, by R. G. Lewis, Esq., was postponed to the 18th. inst., for the want of bidders.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Large direct importation of Salt: O. G. Parsley & Co., Wilmington, N. C.

See Prospectus of Moore's Rural New Yorker.

North Carolina Almanac for 1869: J. A. Jones, Bookseller, Fayetteville Street.

WOMAN'S WORK MADE EASY.—Wash day, the great bug bear to house keepers, made light and cheap. No rubbing. No tearing of clothes. No toiling over the wash tub. All superseded by the Patent Clothes Washer and Boiler. This machine, we are told, is unparallelled. No family should be without it. Call at Lougee & Brother's and see the operation.

A GREAT NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE.—As will be observed by reference to prospectus, Moore's Rural New-Yorker is to be nearly doubled in size and otherwise materially improved. The RURAL is already the most popular national weekly of its class, but the proposed change must largely extend its circulation and influence.

VOTE OF THE STATE.

It will be seen that our table embraces returns, official and unofficial, from 48 counties. In these, the nett Democratic gain is 7,123. A similar ratio of gain in the remaining counties would give the State to the Radicals by a majority of 5,862.

SIXTH DISTRICT.

Mr. Shober's majority in this District is said to be 1,165 over the Hon. Nat. Boyden. We are deeply rejoiced at this result. Mr. Boyden's course has been a most reprehensible one. His inexcusable and shameful attack upon Governor Graham,—if the report of his remarks was correct,—shows to what depths a man will descend, when he once turns his back upon his friends. Hurrah for Shober and the noble Conservatives and Democrats of the Sixth District!

SEVENTH DISTRICT.

Sufficient returns have been received from this District to ensure, beyond peradventure, we think, the election of Plato Durham over A. H. Jones, the present Radical member. We think that the majority will be large. Enough gains have already been reported to overcome the former vote against us, and the gain in the remaining counties will be very considerable. Hurrah for Durham! He has made a glorious fight.

FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

It is thought that the following will approximate the vote in this Congressional District, viz:

	Rogers' maj.	Deweese' maj.
Wake	—	391
Granville	—	562
Warren	—	1225
Chatham	—	140
Johnston	200	—
Orange	451	—
Nash	310	—
Franklin	234	—
	1195	2318
		1195
Deweese's maj.		1,123

When it is remembered that the majority for the Constitution in this District was about 3,500, it will be seen, at a glance, what a splendid effort the Democracy have made. Col. Rogers, who runs several hundred ahead of the Presidential ticket, deserves the warm thanks of our true people for his gallant labors.

It is stated that the Radical Mayor of Washington has dismissed the white city physician, and has put a negro quack in his place. White women, who in sickness are compelled by poverty to resort to the public provision for relief, have to admit this negro quack to their bedsides as their medical attendant.

The above, copied from one of our exchanges, appeared in the Sentinel, on the 2nd. of November. We are authorized to state, officially, that there is no truth in the statement.

BROWNLOW.—A dispatch from Nashville says: "A gentleman who arrived from Knoxville, and who had an interview with Brownlow, says the latter is so extremely feeble as to forcibly suggest the idea of his early decease. He is barely able to talk, and is totally inadequate to the task of walking. The gentleman avers that he will never be able to start for Washington."

The ex-Queen of Spain left behind her one hundred and seventy carriages, several splendid Arab and English horses, as well as the finest collection of mules extant, in the coach houses and stables of her royal palace at Madrid.

STATE MATTERS.

The shock of an earthquake was distinctly felt in Wadesboro, on Tuesday morning last. Some of those who heard the noise say it first sounded like distant thunder, passing off like a long train of empty wagons—others that their tenements were perceptibly jarred, causing windows to rattle, &c. The noise seemed to be principally in a westerly direction, and lasted near a minute.

The Wilmington Star says that if the number of new stores, of various kinds, which have been established in that city this Fall, be any criterion of its prosperity, Wilmington is doing exceedingly well just now.

On Wednesday evening last, a little son of Captain R. T. Hall, of Anson county, named Henry, and aged about 12, while returning home from a meeting at Lilesville, met with a painful accident, which resulted in his death early on the Saturday morning following. The circumstances leading to this melancholy event are thus given by the Argus:

"Henry and another brother were riding colts belonging to their father, which colts are of a stock of horses noted for their fast trotting qualities. They unexpectedly came on some colored persons, who were also returning from the meeting, in a short bend of the road, on a hill side, one of whom, in trying to avoid one of the colts placed himself in the way of the one Henry was riding, resulting in the throwing of the negro, the colt and Henry—Henry's head striking a rock and the colt falling on him. He was taken up in an insensible condition and carried to the nearest house—old Mr. Walton's, we think,—where a surgical examination revealed that his skull was badly fractured. He lingered until Saturday morning, as stated above, when he died, having received every attention that love and affection could bestow. His parents have the deep sympathy of the community."

On Tuesday night, in Concord, as the returns from various precincts were coming in, a large crowd of negroes, jubilant over their success at that box, collected in the street, with the purpose, as some negro stated, to have a row if Seymour and Blair carried the county; and it was with great difficulty and forbearance on the part of the whites that a riot was prevented.

The Star is "glad to learn that the barbers of Wilmington, with a generosity which is truly commendable, have resolved not to charge Democrats more than the usual price for shaving. Our own physique has been somewhat elongated since Tuesday night, and we were fearful that it would entail an extra expense."

Mr. J. D. Stanly, who, some time ago, experimented quite successfully in the manufacture of spirits of turpentine direct from wood, has made quite an improvement in the apparatus used, and has erected a small retort containing the improvement at the ship yard of Messrs. Cassidey Bros., in Wilmington. The Journal says:

"We had an opportunity of witnessing this distilling process yesterday. The improvement made by Mr. Stanly consists of two condensers, when formerly there was but one, which entirely separate the oil and the spirits and render the latter much whiter, cleaner and purer. Besides manufacturing spirits, oil is also distilled and a good quantity of tar or pitch obtained. In addition to these three articles, a fine quality of gas is made in the process, and the wood when entirely consumed leaves an article of charcoal which is said to be most superior for chemical purposes. From a cord of ordinary pine wood 15 to 20 gallons of spirits and about 30 gallons of oil can be obtained. The arrangement of the distillery is simple, and three retorts can be easily managed by one hand. The inventor will doubtless reap an independent fortune from the introduction of this process. He assures us that if he were to conduct a distillery on a large scale, he could easily supply gas to the whole city at $1 per thousand. It would be a blessing if he would try it."

WILSON COUNTY.—We feel proud of the result in our gallant little county. Her Democracy have covered themselves with honor in the late contest. We were the second county in the State to organize for the campaign. We have labored unremittingly from that time until the close of the polls on Tuesday, and we proudly point to a gain of 235 as the result of those labors. Perhaps no county in the State, with an equal voting population, can show a better record. At any rate, we claim three times three for glorious little Wilson!—Plaindealer.

HAVE YOU HEARD THE NEWS FROM OLD "KAINTUCK?"—Look at the following list of Congressmen from that State—all Democrats: Lawrence S. Trimble,* William N. Sweeney, Jacob S. Golladay,* J. F. Smith, J. Proctor Knott,* Boyd Winchester, Thos. L. Jones,* J. B. Beck,* George M. Adams,* John M. Rice.

*Present member.

It is said that Gen. Grant will not resign his military office until just previous to his inauguration, and that he will strongly urge the appointment of Gen. Sherman to be his successor.

From the New York Express.

The Forty-First Congress.

Though Gen. Grant is to be the President of the United States after March 4, 1869, he will not have such an overwhelming Radical majority in the next House of Representatives as has cursed the nation for the last four years. The Fortieth Congress, including the Southern carpet-baggers, was thus politically divided:

Radicals	162
Democrats	52
Radical majority	110
Two-thirds	142

According to the latest returns at hand, the political complexion of the next House of Representatives will be as follows:

Radicals	178
Democrats	77
Radical majority	61
Two-thirds	144

In this calculation it is assumed that the Radicals will elect three Congressmen in New Hampshire next March, and two of the four to be chosen in Connecticut in April, though in the latter State they may not secure but one, as was the case at the Congressional election of 1867. Thus, it will be seen that the Radicals will not have a two-thirds vote in the Forty-first as they have in the present Congress. Not only will the Democrats have an effective working minority, but among them will be men who will make their mark on the floor.—Their influence is sure to be felt.—Among those who are likely to be especially prominent are S. S. Cox, and James Brooks, of this city—the former the most efficient parliamentarian who has been in the House during the last ten years (with the possible exception of Alexander H. Stephens and the late Thaddeus Stevens,) and the latter a very useful member by reason of his abilities as a speaker and his journalistic facility in handling statistics; S. S. Marshall, of Illinois, and Michael C. Kerr, of Indiana, both singularly efficient men in any deliberative body, and doubly so in the House, because of their long experience in the Capitol; Daniel W. Voorhees, of Indiana, a ready speaker and debater, and more than a match in debate for any opponent whom he is likely to meet at Washington; Judge Woodward and Henry D. Foster, of Pennsylvania, both men of more than ordinary ability; and Joseph H. Smith, of Oregon, of whom report speaks in very laudatory terms. In all these gentlemen, and others who might be mentioned, the Radicals in the House will find foemen worthy of their steel, and, we more than suspect, adversaries with whom they will be reluctant to cross swords.

The Radicals have re-elected a number of their brightest lights, at the head of which is Benjamin F. Butler, of Massachusetts, by all odds the sharpest man in debate on their side of the House. Among their other champions who have been re-elected are Robert C. Schenck, John A. Bingham, George S. Boutwell, James G. Blaine, William D. Kelley, E. B. Washburne, John A. Logan, and James A. Garfield, all men who have attained prominence in the present Congress by reason of the poor stuff of which the Radical portion of it is composed. The Radicals, however, will miss the counsels of Thaddeus Stevens and James M. Ashley, of whom the former has gone to his last account, and the latter to settle certain accounts the mere mention of which never reflected much credit upon him.

The country will be the gainer by the increase of Democratic Representatives and Democratic brains in the next Congress.—The experience of the last two Congresses has shown how disastrous a thing it is for one party to have an overwhelming majority in the national legislature; and though the Democrats in the Forty-first Congress will be too few to check all Radical legislation, they will still be strong enough in numbers and brains to prevent a repetition of much of the ill-advised and hasty action which has well nigh made the mere name of Congress a by-word and a reproach in the opinion of all honest men.

Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.

The election of Grant being conceded, and the Presidential canvass over, the quid nuncs and politicians hereabouts have already started upon a sea of speculation as to the course that will be pursued by the new President in the treatment of measures of a purely partisan character, the formation of a Cabinet, and the dispensation of official patronage generally. Undoubtedly many thousands of conservative citizens have cast their votes for Grant in the belief that he is at heart conservative, and that he will, after all, surprise the radicals by the moderation, justice and magnanimity of his official conduct. Be this as it may, such is the opinion of those here who profess to be conversant with Grant's innermost views and his hitherto undisclosed purposes.

There are some who anticipate, before the close of Grant's first year in the White House, almost as complete an estrangement between the executive and the radical leaders in Congress as exists between the latter and President Johnson, and wagers are offered that the extremists of the radical party will threaten, if, indeed, they do not attempt the impeachment of Grant before the close of his Presidential term. That he will disappoint the mere politicians and traders for office in the radical party, and that he will be too slow for them in the decapitation of officials, is the general belief.

About a dozen probable nominees for each of the several cabinet positions are named, but, of course, these suggestions come too early to be of much weight. Gen. Schofield will undoubtedly, unless he otherwise determines for himself, remain at the head of the War Department. It is known that Gen. Grant holds that the Secretaries of War and Navy should be, if possible, respectively of the military and naval profession.

No better selection from the military for Secretary of War could probably be made than Gen. Schofield, who, it is admitted by those whose opportunities for forming a correct judgment are best, possesses in an eminent degree the qualifications required to discharge the duties of that office. Some are of the opinion that Mr. Seward will be retained in the Department of State, and they cite facts, not very convincing, however, in support of this belief, which it is not necessary perhaps at this time to repeat.—For the Treasury Department, General Schenck, Senators Sherman and Morgan, Representative Boutwell, Commissioner Wells, Cisco, and a dozen more of less note are suggested.

These are certainly premature disposals of these important offices, but the work of manufacturing or shaping public opinion in favor of the would be cabinet officers has actually commenced in political headquarters already.

Curtis, in his Sedgwick oration, used the quotation "Ubi libertas, ibi patria." A short-hand reporter "took him" all right, but in writing out the note made him say, "You be Libertas, I be patria," and thus it was printed.

"CONGRESSIONAL RECONSTRUCTION,"—HOW IT WORKS IN FLORIDA.

TALLAHASSEE, Nov 7, P. M.

About nine o'clock, last night, citizens, to the number of one hundred or more, were summoned by the City and County authorities to hold themselves in readiness to aid in quelling any riot.—At eleven o'clock there were no indications of trouble, and the posse was discharged.

The cause of the call was conflicting orders from Governor Reed and Lt. Governor Gleason, and fears were entertained that the colored people would attempt to support the action of the Legislature.

The citizens are uneasy, to-day, but will not interfere, except to aid in preserving the peace, when prompt assistance will be rendered.

Rumors on the streets, to-day, that plantation negroes have been notified to come in to-night, may be doubted. One company of the 7th. Regiment is posted here, about thirty strong.

The Legislature adjourned this morning till January—no quorum present.

When the impeachment passed, several members held their seats and voted, whose seats have been declared vacant by a proclamation of the Governor, by reason of the members accepting and occupying other offices. Governor Reed refuses to recognize the action of the body and declares it illegal.

Lt. Gov. Gleason, this morning, demanded possession of the Executive and was refused by Gov. Reed, who has brought suit against Gleason and Alden, Secretary of State, before the Circuit Judge, for conspiracy against the government, and they are now under arrest. This case will be sent up to the Supreme Court.

The general impression seems to be that Reed is in the right.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 7, P. M.

The case of Gov. Reed against Lt. Gov. Gleason and Secretary Alden is before Judge Cooke, this evening. It has been put over for Friday next.

The following proclamation has been issued:

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,
Tallahasse, Fla, Nov. 6, 1868.

WHEREAS, The Assembly of Florida, duly organized in extraordinary session, held by virtue of a proclamation issued by the Governor of Florida, on the 3rd day of November, A. D. 1868, have impeached Harrison Reed, Governor of Florida, for high crimes and misdemeanors in office; and whereas, under the provisions of the Constitution of the State of Florida, the said Harrison Reed, Governor of Florida, is debarred from exercising the functions of the Executive office of the State, and the administration thereof devolves upon the Lt. Governor:

Now, therefore, I, Wm. H. Gleason, Lieutenant Governor of the State of Florida, do issue my proclamation, taking possession of the Executive Department of the government, in all its parts. I hereby call upon all citizens of the State to support the government, obey the laws of the State and preserve the peace and quiet.

In testimony whereof, I have herewith set my hand and caused the great seal of the State to be affixed, this, the 6th day of November, A. D. 1868.

(Signed) W. H. GLEASON,
Lt. and Acting Governor.

Attest: GEO. J. ALDEN, Sec of State.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
TALLAHASSEE, FLA, Nov. 7, 1868.

To the Sheriff of Leon county, State of Florida:

SIR—I am, under the Constitution and laws of the State, the rightful Governor thereof, and shall continue to exercise the power and authority and discharge all the duties belonging to the office of the Executive Department until the Judicial tribunals of the State shall determine otherwise. To the determination of the Judiciary, I will, like any other good citizen, yield peaceful and immediate obedience.

(Signed) HARRISON REED, Governor.

EXTENSIVE SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

PURSUANT TO A DECREE OF GUILFORD Superior Court, we will expose to public sale on the premises, at 12 o'clock, M., on Thursday, the 26th day of November, on a credit of six and twelve months, bond and approved security, that valuable plantation of the late Col. P. G. Evans, lying on the Yadkin River, at Holtsburg, in Davidson County, containing about 160 acres, more or less. A large proportion of said Land is cleared and in a fine state of cultivation. The improvements consist of a number of plank houses formerly used as negro houses, barns, &c.

Also, a building Lot of 9 acres, with two small buildings and Barn. Also, an undivided one-third interest in about 700 acres, more or less, of fine farming Land lying around Holtsburg on the Yadkin River, upon which is a fine Water Power inexhaustible as the Yadkin itself.

We will also sell, at the Court House door in Newbern, on Wednesday, 9th of December, at 12 o'clock, on same terms, that magnificent Plantation upon which the late Col Evans resided, situated 7 miles from Newbern, containing about 5 000 acres, known as the Gaston place, or Beachwood. This is one of the very best places in North Carolina. The lands are of the very finest quality known in the Eastern part of this State, which is famous for its productiveness. The whole place is underlaid with one vast marl bed, immense quantities of which Col Evans used on the plantation. The marl is near the surface and easy to get at, and in inexhaustible quantities. There is a flourishing young Orchard on the place. Col. Evans having set out 4,000 Fruit Trees of the choicest varieties in 1860-'61. The improvements consist of a frame Dwelling House with five rooms, and all necessary out-houses for servants, carriage-house, &c. A large proportion of the place is ditched and drained and under cultivation, and is admirably adapted to cotton, corn, oats, hay, and all the products of this climate. There are also on the place large quantities of pine and cypress timber. Bryce's Creek, which is navigable, runs through the place, and on it and near the dwelling House is a very fine water-power where Col. E. had large Grist and Saw Mills, which were destroyed during the war.

Also, the Long Lake Plantation, situated about ten miles from Newbern and three from the Gaston Plantation, containing about 3,700 acres, more or less. It has upon it a large Dwelling House. The lands are of the finest quality and underlaid with marl. A large proportion of this tract is in Timber of the best quality.

Also, the Speight or Cutler tract, immediately opposite Newbern—across the Trent river—(upon which is located James City)—consisting of about 566 acres, more or less. This land is nearly all cleared and in cultivation, and is valuable for being so near the City of Newbern.

Also, 160 Shares of Stock in the Atlantic & N. C. Railroad, and 8 shares in the Clermont Bridge Company.

We will sell, on Thursday, 10th of December, in Morehead City, on terms above mentioned, the following City Lots:

Also, an undivided interest in a tract of Land near the town of Newport, in Carteret County, owned by said evans and J. M. Morehead.

On Thursday, 17th of December, we will sell in Pittsboro', Chatham County, at the Court House, at 12 o'clock, on same terms, the La Grange Lands, consisting of about 2,550 acres, more or less, lying in the County of Chatham, on Deep River—or said Evans' interest in said lands. These lands are very valuable for farming purposes, and contain very extensive Coal beds, some of which have been successfully worked and large quantities of coal taken therefrom. The improvements consist of a good Dwelling House with six rooms, servants' houses, Gin house, Barns, &c.

Also, all Col Evans' Stock in the LaGrange Mining, Manufacturing and Transportation Company.

Also, those valuable Grist and Saw Mills on Deep River, known as Evans' Mills, which are now in operation. The supply of water is constant, and the Mills are admirably located for an extensive and successful business.

A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.
Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever exhibited in the United States.

THIS BOILER OPERATES UPON PURELY philosophical principles.

It is self-acting, and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of fire, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the Clothes and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested and pronounced unequalled as a Clothes Washer by those who have used it.

All fabrics, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket, can be washed perfectly and with ease without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable, as the rubbing, roiling, and pressing process, must necessarily full them more or less.

It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.

The invention can be used in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

If the directions are strictly followed, success is certain.

The saving in the wear of clothes will very soon pay for the outlay.

It is estimated that 200 to 300 gallons of boiled suds pass through the clothes in thirty minutes; this being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.

Having purchased the exclusive interest and control of the Automatic Clothes Washer and Boiler, for North Carolina, we have established a depot in Raleigh, where we are prepared to fill orders or to sell COUNTY RIGHTS. Letters addressed to us at Raleigh, N. C., or Portsmouth, Va., will receive prompt attention.
